Financial justification	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Please explain the purpose of the coverage and the reason for the face amount in a cover letter. Lincoln will use U.S. or global assets and income to justify the face amount, if Underwriter can independently verify ownership and value of the asset. Lincoln may accept third-party verification of assets from a properly credentialed financial or tax advisor. Concrete documentation may be submitted to support the face amount. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Examples of supporting documentation include: bank or brokerage account statements from the U.S. or abroad, and U.S. property tax bills. Clients can use assets owned by a foreign entity if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> All documentation is supplied sufficiently connecting the client to the entity and its assets. Otherwise, clients must use assets owned personally or by an entity connected to them.
Language considerations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Client must have a basic understanding of the English language. If the application needs interpretation, please include information about who did the interpretation when you submit the application. If the client prefers to have the exam done in a language other than English, please note this in your cover letter or notify the vendor when you order the exam. The client may not bring someone to do the interpretation to the exam. Inspection report phone call may be done in the client's preferred language.
Delivery	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Policy delivery must take place in the U.S. Limited POA may be used for delivery only. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Lincoln will provide suggested POA language. The POA must be notarized. The attorney-in-fact may be anyone as long as there is no conflict of interest. The attorney-in-fact may sign only on behalf of the owner. The insured must return to the U.S. to sign any medical amendments or a declaration of insurability.
